ORAL JUDGEMENT

Per: D.M. Dharmadhikari, C.J. :-

By this Public Interest Litigation, directions were sought from this Court against the State and its authorities for not to allow the Rajkot Homeopathic Medical College at Rajkot, to impart education and admit the students to homeopathic course, as the college has not received any affiliation from the University. It was stated that, such directions are necessary in the interest of students, whose career would be at stake. During pendency of this petition, Rajkot Homeopathic Medical College has been granted affiliation by the University. This has been stated by learned Govt. counsel at the Bar, on the basis of the instructions received by her. In the circumstances, we find no useful purpose in proceeding with this Public Interest Litigation. Consequently, in view of the subsequent events and grant of affiliation to the above named Homeopathic College, the petition is disposed of. No order as to cost.
